2. Department of Motor Vehicles, California Driver License Classes.

II. GENERAL POLICY

The California Vehicle and Public Utility Codes require employers of drivers of certain types of vehicles to obtain reports of the driver’s public driving record from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). There are criminal penalties for employing or continuing to employ as a driver a person who has had a disqualifying action taken against the person’s license or certificate.

As an employer of drivers, UCLA participates in the DMV “Employer Pull Notice Program” (EPN), which is a process for providing the employer with a report showing each driver’s current public driving record and the status of any required certification.

Persons against whom a disqualifying action (suspension or revocation of license or certificate) has been taken by the DMV shall not be employed as drivers. Persons considered by the University to have a poor driving record or presumed to be a “negligent” operator by the DMV based on violation point counts shall not be employed as drivers.

DRIVER’S LICENSE EMPLOYER PULL NOTICE (EPN) PROGRAM APPLICANT INFORMATION

Instructions: Departments must provide this information to prospective employees who would be required to participate in the DMV EPN Program.

TO: APPLICANTS FOR POSITIONS COVERED UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES EPN PROGRAM

FROM: Office of the Administrative Vice Chancellor

The California Vehicle and the Public Utility Codes require the University to participate in the Department of Motor Vehicle’s “Employer Pull Notice (EPN) Program.” This program provides employers information about employee convictions of traffic violations and any action the DMV takes against driver’s licenses and special certificates.

The job you are applying for is included in the EPN Program. If you are hired for this job, the University, as your employer, will receive notices from the DMV whenever you have been convicted of any moving vehicle violation, both on and off the job. The DMV will also inform the University of any action it takes against your driver’s license or any special certificate or permit. Prior to being made a final job offer, you will be required to provide your current (within previous 10 calendar days) DMV driving record. This record may be obtained at the DMV closest to your home.

If you are hired for this job, the University will be required to keep a file on your driving record. Information received through the EPN Program may be used as a basis for disciplinary actions up to and including dismissal. Each time your department is notified of conviction for a driving violation or action against your license, you will be counseled and may be subject to other personnel actions. If the University determines that you have a poor driving record, or your DMV point total equals or exceeds that which the DMV considers “negligent” (see Attachment E), the University can no longer employ you as a driver.

As an employee covered under the EPN Program, you would be responsible for maintaining in good standing your driver’s license and any certificate or permit needed to do your job.

Note: You would also be responsible for notifying your department whenever you are convicted of a motor vehicle violation or have action taken against your driver’s license, permit, or certificate.

If you are hired for this job, loss of your driver’s license or certificate, or a poor driving record, may result in termination of University employment. If you have any questions regarding this position, please see the departmental representative.

EMPLOYER PULL NOTICE (EPN) PROGRAM DRIVER'S LICENSE NOTIFICATION TO EMPLOYEES

Instructions: Departments must provide this information to employees participating in the DMV EPN Program. After the employee has signed the notification, provide the employee with a copy and retain the original for departmental files.

TO: UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES, EMPLOYEES PARTICIPATING IN THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES EMPLOYER PULL NOTICE (EPN) PROGRAM

FROM: Office of the Administrative Vice Chancellor

Recent changes in the California Vehicle and the Public Utility Codes require the University to participate in the Department of Motor Vehicle’s EPN Program. This program provides employers information about employee convictions of motor vehicle safety violations and any action the DMV takes against driver’s licenses and certificates.

Because driving or operating special vehicles is a required part of your job, your position is included in the EPN Program. This means the University, as your employer, will receive notices from the DMV whenever you have been convicted of motor vehicle violations, both on and off the job. The DMV will also inform the University of any action it takes against your driver’s license or any special certificate or permit.

The University must maintain a file on your driving record. Information received through the EPN Program may be used as a basis for disciplinary actions up to and including dismissal. Each time your department is notified of a driving violation or action against your license, you will be counseled and may be subject to other personnel actions. If the University determines that you have a poor driving record, or your DMV point total equals or exceeds that which the DMV considers “negligent” (see Attachment E), the University can no longer employ you as a driver.

As an employee covered under the EPN Program, you are responsible for maintaining in good standing your driver’s license and any special certificate or permit needed to perform your job duties.

Note: You are also responsible for immediately notifying your department whenever you are convicted of a motor vehicle violation or have action taken against your driver’s license, permit, or certificate.

Action against your driver’s license or a poor driving record may result in termination of University employment. If you have any questions regarding this information or the requirements for the position, please see the departmental representative.

I have received a copy of this notification.

As you know, your job is included in the Department of Motor Vehicles Employer Pull Notice (EPN) Program. This means the University, as your employer, receives notices from the DMV whenever you have been convicted of any moving vehicle violation (both on and off the job) or have had any action taken against your driver’s license, certificate, or permit.

This is official notice that the University has been notified by the DMV of the following action regarding your driving record:

Information received through the EPN Program may be used as a basis for disciplinary actions up to and including dismissal. If the University determines that you have a poor driving record, or your DMV point total equals or exceeds that which the DMV considers to be “negligent,” the University can no longer employ you as a driver.

Your driver’s license, as well as any special driver certificates or permits necessary for your job, must be maintained in good standing. The loss of your driver’s license or certificates, or a poor driving record, may result in termination of employment with the University.

I have received a copy of this notification.

DMV POINT SYSTEM

Each time a driver is convicted of a moving traffic law violation, the court notifies the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). The DMV in turn notifies the University if the driver is included on the University’s Employer Pull Notice (EPN) Program list.

When a traffic conviction shows a person operated a motor vehicle unsafely on a highway, it counts as one point.

An accident is normally counted as one point.

Two points are charged for convictions of:

1. Reckless driving.
2. Driving under the influence of liquor or any drug.
3. Hitting an unattended vehicle without notifying the owner.
4. Causing property damage, injury, or death by hit and run driving.
5. Manslaughter (involving a vehicle).
6. Causing injury or death with a vehicle while evading a peace officer.
7. Driving on the wrong side of a divided highway.
8. Speed contest or exhibition of speed.

The DMV may consider an individual with the following point totals a negligent driver:

Class 1 (A) or Class 2 (B) with special certificate, and Class 3 (C) or 4 (M) licenses:

4 points in 12 months
6 points in 24 months
8 points in 36 months

Class 1 (A) or Class 2 (B) license with no special certificate:

6 points in 12 months
8 points in 24 months
10 points in 36 months
